The Hallé

Tickets: £25.76, £23.52, £20.16

Students & Under 18s: £5.60

Venue: Oval Hall

Scintillating double-bill of Beethoven, plus Shostakovich's legendary Fifth Symphony

The Hallé, under the baton of the brilliant young Finnish conductor Klaus Mäkelä, opens the season in scintillating style. Beethoven was instinctively drawn to the Prometheus myth and the music he wrote for a ballet based on it, including its overture which opens the concert, is suitably heroic and uplifting.

Vikingur Ólafsson, recently described by Gramophone as a "breathtakingly brilliant pianist" and a dual winner at the 2019 BBC Music Magazine awards, is soloist in Beethoven's First Concerto. The concert closes with Shostakovich's legendary Fifth Symphony, a towering monument of 20th-century music.

Friday 4th October | 7pm

Moscow Philharmonic Orchestra

Tickets: £25.76, £23.52, £20.16

Students & Under 18s: £5.60

Venue: Oval Hall

An authentic all-Russian programme including Tchaikovsky's iconic Swan Lake Suite

Yuri Botnari and the Moscow Philharmonic provide a thrilling 'white night' of great Russian music. Tchaikovsky's Marche Slave continues to delight and uplift concert-goers the world over. So too the same composer's beguiling Swan Lake, a veritable treasure trove of great melodies. There is more ballet music in the form of Khachaturian's Gayane, with its famously sharp-edged 'Sabre Dance'.

Glazunov's Violin Concerto might not be as well-known as some, but rest assured it's a gem! Natalia Lomeiko is a renowned interpreter of the work, a player who has truly mastered its deft blend of virtuosity and rich, highly-strung romanticism.

The Russian State Ballet and Opera House presents The Nutcracker

Tickets: £41.44, £35.84, £29.12
 Concessions: £38.08, £32.48, £25.76
 Venue: Oval Hall

Performed to a large, live orchestra

A dazzling production of the most famous ballet in the world.

Snow flurries, sweets, princes, magic and love are just some of the elements that will be brought together by this renowned Russian company in a highly accessible ballet, full of familiar music such as the Waltz of the Flowers and the Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy.

The Nutcracker is an eternal seasonal favourite, directed and choreographed by the award-winning former Bolshoi Ballet Soloist Konstantin Uralsky.

This ballet continues to capture the hearts and imaginations of all generations across the world. It is a truly captivating piece of theatre, a wonderful introduction to ballet whilst retaining its appeal for anyone who is familiar with it.

Al Stewart

Tickets: £33.04

Venue: Ballroom

Hits and misses with his electric band The Empty Pockets

After touring for the last year in the USA with his band the Empty Pockets, Al has decided to bring this show to the UK shores. He will be playing selections from his deep catalogue along with favorites Year Of The Cat, Time Passages, On the Border, Nostradamus and Roads To Moscow.

Monday 21st October | 7.30pm

David Gower: On the Front Foot

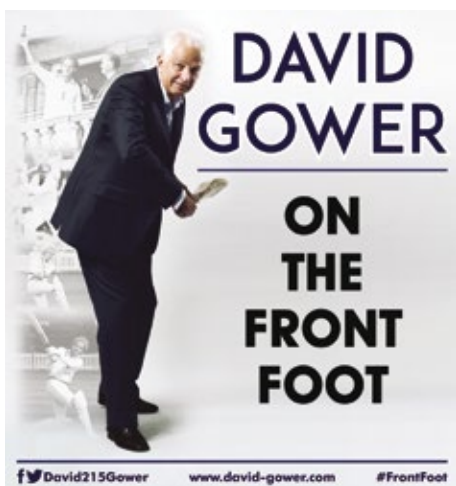

Tickets: £26.59

Venue: Memorial Hall

Tales from the former England Cricket Captain

Often described as one of the most stylish left-handed batsmen of all time, the blond-haired 80s bombshell promises to share his thoughts on this year's Cricket World Cup and The Ashes, both of which are being battled out on home soil.

This is your chance to hear from the Sky Sports Cricket lead anchor before anyone else, in a year that has every potential to be one of the most memorable for the history of the game. Expect tales from captaining his national team to victory in the Ashes as well as memories flying that Tiger Moth over Queensland.

The tickets price shown is the ticket face value plus a booking fee of 12%.

Monday 21st October | 7.30pm

An Evening with Lenny Henry

Tickets: £38.35, £34.99

Venue: Oval Hall

Sir Lenny Henry asks 'Who Am I, Again?'

Following the October publication of his memoir, Lenny will travel the length, breadth and width of the country with An Evening with Lenny Henry – Who Am I, Again?

In part one of the show, Lenny will take the audience through a jam session of stories both funny and sad, triggered when writing his memoir, from growing up in the Black Country, puberty, school, friendship, family secrets and unashamed racism. With his mother's mantra of 'H'integration' echoing in his ears, Lenny will recount setting out on his roller coaster ride of a career – but at every stage wondering: Am I good enough? Is this what they want?

In part two, Lenny will be interviewed by friend, broadcaster and author Jon Canter, for further insights into his life and career, followed by questions from the audience. Come and enjoy these honest and tender stories, told with a glorious sense of humour and help Lenny figure out 'Who Am I Again?'

Tuesday 22nd October | 7.30pm

Tim Minchin: Back 2019

SOLD OUT

Venue: Oval Hall

Long awaited follow up tour from one of the worlds most iconic comedians

Award-winning comedian, actor and composer, will return to the stage for his first UK tour dates since 2011.

BACK is billed as Old Songs and New Songs hinting at a set list of material from all corners of Minchin's eclectic – and often iconoclastic – repertoire.

Minchin has been celebrated globally for writing the music and lyrics for Matilda the Musical, which has gone on to become one of the most acclaimed musicals of the last 20 years, winning a record seven Olivier Awards, 13 Helpmann Awards and five Tony Awards. He also wrote music and lyrics for the musical adaption of Groundhog Day, which after an acclaimed limited run at The Old Vic in London in 2016, debuted on Broadway in April 2017 and won the Olivier Award for Best Musical in 2017.

George Egg

Tickets: £17.63
 OAP/Student Tickets: £15.39
 Venue: Memorial Hall

Stand-Up and cooking combines

Brand new comedy from the stand-up who cooks on stage. In this show he's on the road! It's time for Planes, Trains and Automob-meals (sorry).

George demonstrates how to cook with an engine, procure items from the train buffet trolley and turn unexpected road-works into a picnic. Three plates of gourmet food cooked live in the most unconventional ways and with the opportunity to taste the results at the end, provided you can stop laughing.

"Brilliantly funny" – Jay Rayner, The Guardian.

"trust us, you won't believe how good the food tastes" – The Scotsman.

The tickets price shown is the ticket face value plus a booking fee of 12%.

Will Young has spent the last two decades at the forefront of pop after bursting onto the scene in 2002. His expansive career has culminated in four #1 and two #2 chart topping albums, two BRIT Awards and four UK number one singles.

Friday 25th October | 7pm

Flanders Symphony Orchestra

Tickets: £25.76, £23.52, £20.16
Students & Under 18s: £5.60
Venue: Oval Hall

José Luis Gomez conducts Milos Karadaglic on Guitar

Music from or associated with Spain dominates this programme as the Flanders Symphony Orchestra makes a welcome visit to City Hall. The music is thrilling enough itself, but if you add to that the electrifying talents of José Luis Gomez, a winner of the prestigious George Solti Conducting Competition, the event becomes unmissable.

After the drama and sparkling wit of Rossini, Miloš Karadaglic enters for Rodrigo's adored Concierto de Aranjuez, with its dancing first and third movements and soulful and poetic second. The guitar stars in its own right in some atmospheric Preludes by the Brazilian Villa-Lobos before the concert ends in glorious style. Carmen might have been written by a Frenchman, but by goodness it captures the essence of Spain!

Tickets: £5

Book 5 Sessions For £20

This community choir in the city centre is open to everyone, even if you have never sung in a choir before. You don't need to read music, it's all taught by ear and every kind of voice is welcome. Come and sing pop, folk, blues and gospel during your lunch hour and give your mind and body a boost in the beautiful setting of the art deco Ballroom. The sessions are led by Val Regan who has over twenty years experience of creating community choirs.

Dancing in the Ballroom Tea Dances

Admission: £3 Tuesdays and Thursdays, £3.50 Saturdays

Please check www.sheffieldcityhall.co.uk or call the Box Office on 0114 2 789 789 for monthly dates.

The City Hall's famous Tea Dances have been bringing people together for over 85 years. Many of Sheffield's married couples first met on the illuminated dance floor and the city's brave wartime Women of Steel, now immortalised with a statue outside the building, could often be found quickstepping and waltzing around the art deco Ballroom. The tea dances remain as popular as ever, drawing visitors from across South Yorkshire and beyond for a heart-warming and friendly afternoon of ballroom, latin and sequence dance.
